Little Bethel Crosstown Community Center

The Little Bethel Crosstown Community Center exists to minister to the mind, body, and soul of the Crosstown Neighborhood and surrounding area. It's vision is to foster a vibrant community actively engaged around services and resources that promote neighborly relations. The City League was birthed out of The Center in 2014 and continues to provide a great home for the event.

BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT

COMMUNITY FESTIVAL

thecityleague.org

Welcome!!!

The City League is a community oriented basketball tournament that brings together Mid-North and Northeast neighbors for fun and meaningful fellowship. The 2018 event will run six-weeks from January 25th– March 8th, at the Little Bethel Crosstown Community Center located in the historic Crosstown neighborhood of Indianapolis

We are a collaboration of businesses and organizations on the near Northside of Indianapolis. We use the energy high level basketball generates to create a platform that allows for local organizations and initiatives working to improve the quality of life on the near Northside to showcase themselves. We have partnered with leaders from the Mid-North and Northeast Corridor Quality of Life Plans to build awareness around various community initiatives. Each Thursday evening will highlight a quality of life focus area including education, food, art, recreation, and health & wellness.

Brandon Beasley

Indianapolis native Brandon Beasley led his team to the Money in winning the first City League Title in 2017.

Brandon was an All-City basketball player at Arlington High School. As a Golden Knight he set a City Tournament record for most combined points / rebounds in a game when he went for 29 Points and 20 Rebounds. Coming out of high school the 2007 graduate was recruited by Purdue and Western Kentucky but went the JUCO route for academic reasons. After spending time at Southeastern Illinois and Columbus State Brandon had interest from high profile Division 1 programs Southern Illinois, North Carolina State, and Xavier. Ultimately he ended up at NAIA William Penn in Oskaloosa, Iowa. Brandon struggled with knee injuries early on at William Penn. But once he became healthy he was one of the best players in school history earning NAIA First Team All -American honors, leading his team to the best record in school history, first ever #1 national ranking, and an appearance in the NAIA National Championship Game.

After college Brandon was in training camp with the Indiana Pacers which led to him being drafted by the Pacers D-League affiliate the Fort Wayne Mad Ants. His time in the D League was brief before going to play in Saudi Arabia and Luxembourg –averaging 20 + points a game at each stop. After sitting out two years Brandon played in Australia and the Philippines in 2017. He is looking to head to India, Mexico, or Brazil next...

Brandon is a certified personal trainer and wellness coach earning degrees in both areas. When home in Indianapolis he is training and helping people achieve their fitness goals.
